The Key to Independence is Simple, It Lies Within the Individual...

A Family of Resources

Since our beginning in 1988, Resources for Independent Living, Inc. has been a family oriented organization reaching for positive and effective change in our community.

Our compassionate staff delights in providing daily services to those who are in need and take pride in assisting individuals with disabilities.

Services Resources for Independent Living, Inc. is proud to offer a variety of services. Our services allow our consumers to live independent lives and have continued personal choice.

- INFORMATION & REFERRAL

We pride in providing dependable and accurate information on topics of concern or interests regarding persons with disabilities and refer our consumers to appropriate avenues to meet all their inquiries and needs.

- ADVOCACY

A strong knowledge of personal rights is essential in today's world. We encourage self-advocacy and assertiveness in our consumers.

- CASE MANAGEMENT

We provide necessary resources and supports to execute the steps to transition into an independent persons living in the community of your choice.

- PEER SUPPORT

Everyone needs an outlet of understanding. Our peer support groups allow peers to spend time together in group settings discussing personal issues or concerns as well as being informed about our many social events in the community.

- INDEPENDENT LIVING SKILLS TRAINING

Essential skills are needed to perform everyday tasks. Our skills training includes financial management, meal planning, household cleaning, and transportation training

- PERSONAL ASSISTANCE SERVICES

With personal assistance, performing daily activities is made easier. Our Personal Care Assistants (PCA) help consumers through State PCA, Elderly & Disabled Adults (EDA) Waiver, New Opportunities Waiver (NOW), and Long Term-Personal Care Services (LT-PCS).

- TRANSPORTATION

Our transportation services are designed to assist individuals and provide safe, reliable access to the community for medical appointments and other needs.

our organization is an Employment Network Agency for the Ticket to Work Program to provide support services needed for persons with disabilities to gain employment opportunities.*

 Case Management is implemented through all services offered.*
